APPLIED BEHAVIOUR
ANALYSIS (ABA)
INFORMATION DAY

For university students:

- studying in an area such as psychology, speech, OT etc.;
- interested in part-time work in a home-based ABA program; and
- wishing to eventually embark on a career in the area.

Sunday, 2nd October 2005

9.00am – 5.00pm

The program

- Information about autism
- ABA theory and practice
- ABC of behaviour management
- Working in a home-based program or school environment
- Viewpoints from parents and ABA therapists

The presenters

Presenters will include the following experienced professionals:

- Kirsten Aspin – Program Supervisor, Autism Partnership Qld
- Nina Fitzpatrick – BCABA

And other speakers yet to be confirmed

Also a parent of a child with autism will share experiences and expectations.

What's in it for you?

Students who are interested in a career working with children who have autism will learn more about this field. You should attend if you are looking for casual employment within a home-based ABA program. After attending this workshop, you may place your details on the ABIQ teaching assistant register, from which potential employers recruit staff for their ABA programs.
